

I find the traffic and weather service on XM radio to be most helpful when I am traveling. I am able to check the weather in my destination city from home and listen to traffic conditions when I arrive. I take the the radio with me so I can instantly check traffic conditions without having to search the AM & FM band for a station that broadcasts traffic and weather.